Used First Sewing Machine.

The first woman in America to use a sewing machine died at Winsted, in Connecticut, at the age of eighty-six. She was Miss Elizabeth Kilbourn, who in the fifties was a teacher in a private school at New Hartford. When Elias Howe was experimenting with his invention, he asked her to help him, and so to her fell the honor of being the first to use the new machine.

RICHARD W. KNOTT, LOUISVILLE POST EDITOR, DEAD.

Richard Wilson Knott, 63, editor and publisher of The Louisville Evening Post and of The Home and Farm, an agricultural paper, died suddenly at his home in Louisville of heart failure. He was lying down while his wife read to him, when he suddenly became ill. He died before the arrival of a physician.

Mr. Knott had been ill for more than a year, but his condition had not been regarded as serious and his end was entirely unexpected. He went home Friday night after attending to his duties at his office and his wife was reading to him when the end came.

Mr. Knott started his newspaper career in Louisville with the Courier-Journal and was employed as editorial writer when he took over The Evening Post. Under his management the paper has always been a profitable piece of property, but has been famous for the many sides of the political fence on which it has been. In the last few years The Post has been Democratic, but actively opposed to Governor Stanley.

Mr. Knott was born in Frankfort 68 years ago. He married Miss Jennie A. Gilmore. One son, Richard G. Knott, and a daughter, Mrs. McGhee Stokes, of Gunnison, Miss., survive. Four brothers, John R., E. P., W. T. and Stuart R. also survive him.

GOVERNMENT WANTS THIRTY-FIVE KENTUCKY BRICKLAYERS

Provost Marshal General Crowder has notified Governor Stanley that Kentucky's quota of the 1,000 bricklayers needed by General Pershing in thirty-five men. Local exemption boards are required to examine questionnaires now being returned and report as soon as possible on the number of bricklayers of draft age available for service. Only white bricklayers will be accepted for this service. Kentucky's quota will be sent to the aviation section, Signal Corps, at Kelley Field, San Antonio, Texas.

A WHITE CHRISTMAS.

A white Christmas surprised Kentucky, by arriving before daylight December 25. It was a pleasant surprise to the boys who received sleds for Christmas gifts, and to the many—old and young—who are still young enough to love the sight of snow more than they dislike the inconvenience, but the temperature bit hard into the fuel piles of the many who this year find cold weather an exceptional hardship. Perhaps cold weather is a germicide, and maybe a hard winter is for the best taken by and large, despite the fuel shortage and the high prices, but to everyone who must supply a home on a modest income December, 1917, is proving an exacting month. Such persons will hope that a good deal of early cold weather will mean milder weather later in the winter and an early spring. Such persons were not in a mood to relish a white Christmas followed by weather exceptionally cold for the season.—State Journal.

THE JANUARY WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION.

The New Year's number of the Woman's Home Companion is filled with many interesting and stimulating articles and stories. Margaret Deland, the well known author, has written an article about the "Three S's," which she says are Sacrifice, Substitute and Save. "Soldier's All," the Patriotic Department being conducted by Mrs. Richardson, tells many interesting things and gives many helpful ideas. The number is especially rich in fiction, "The Golden Block" by Sophie Kerr, finishing in this number. In addition, there are stories by Elizabeth Jordan, Ruth Sawyer and other well known authors.

Grace Margaret Gould's Bulletin Board gives many helpful hints, as does the rest of her Fashion Department. The Pin-Money Club will help you to earn money, and all the other usual departments are up to their monthly standard, helping to round out an unusual number.

Shakespeare and the Bible. Whatever his faults and limitations, Shakespeare will live forever. Dr. George W. Carey has said: "Shakespeare probed the depths of human possibilities, analyzed the stuff from which thoughts are made, turned the searchlight of incomparable genius on the records of the soul, painted its deeds on the canvas of life, and left it naked and ashamed." Shakespeare and the Bible will survive, after all our current literature is forgotten.—Los Angeles Times.

Now the Kaiser is credited with a plan to restore the Czar, who wanted to rush his Cossacks to Berlin. Our own view is that the Wilhelm-Nickie bond is broken forever.

TECHNIQUE.

The star actor, unable to restrain his mirth at the astounding satin decollete worn by his leading woman in the scene where she, a street waif, pleads with him to give her a farthing, that she and her widowed mother may not starve, turned his back to the audience. So uncontrollable were his chuckles that his shoulders heaved up and down, and his head shook, and his neck got red, and his eyes watered.

"A master of the acting technique," thought the audience. "How wonderfully he expresses the emotional outburst of grief!"—George Jean Nathan in Puck.

STOMACH TROUBLE AND CONSTIPATION.

Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.

The Real Thing.

It makes a fellow step higher when some big man says of him: "He is the smartest man in this town!" But that is nothing by the side of having a little chap snuggle up to your side and whisper softly, "I like you! You're so good to me!"—Farm Life.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.
